

GERSHWIN AND ME

8PM, SATURDAY 13 APRIL

Simon Tedeschi has been described by respected critics and musical peers as one of the finest artists in the world. Today, his virtuosity in both live performances and recordings meets with universal critical acclaim. This concert is a personal journey through some of Gershwin's best-loved works and other composers from his world. Including favourites such as Rhapsody in Blue, the Three Preludes, Summertime, 'S Wonderful, and The Man I Love. Plus works by composers from Gershwin's world, including Rachmaninov, Debussy, Grainger and Fats Waller.
